Notice Relating to Delisting Schedule from the New York Stock Exchange

This is to advise you that Kyocera Corporation (the “Company”) has notified the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) on June 5, 2018 (Eastern Time in the U.S.) that it will make an application for voluntary delisting of the Company’s American Depositary Shares (“ADSs”) from the NYSE, in connection with its announcement on February 26, 2018 relating to its intention of delisting from the NYSE. The Company’s future plans regarding delisting are as follows.

1. Reasons for Applying for Delisting

The Company issued its ADSs in February 1976 and listed its ADSs on the NYSE in May 1980 mainly to promote trading of its shares and to raise the visibility of the Company’s brand in the U.S. Since then, the Company has made efforts to enhance disclosures for shareholders and investors to deepen their understanding of the Company, in addition to complying with the disclosure requirements of U.S. securities laws and regulations, providing consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“U.S. GAAP”), and establishing internal controls in accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Meanwhile, the external environment has significantly changed as indicated by the increases in trading volume of Japanese stocks through stock exchanges in Japan by overseas investors due to the internationalization of the Japanese financial and capital markets, as well as the narrowing of the gap between U.S. and Japanese disclosure standards with respect to financial reporting due to a series of amendments to Japanese laws and regulations and accounting standards.

In addition to these changes to the environment, as the trading volume of the Company’s ADSs on the NYSE has been on a decreasing trend in recent years, the Company believes that the economic rationality of maintaining a listing on the NYSE has declined.

Therefore, the Company decided to apply for voluntary delisting of its ADSs from the NYSE and for termination of registration of its ADSs with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

4. Future Actions

While the Company's reporting obligations under the Exchange Act (including the obligation to file annual reports on Form 20-F) will be terminated, the Company will continue to disclose financial statements and other information, in English, on its website to ensure that its shareholders and investors will continue to have appropriate information about the Company.

In addition, after the delisting of its ADSs from the NYSE, the Company intends to maintain its American Depositary Receipt Program in the U.S. and therefore anticipates that its ADSs will continue to be traded in the U.S. on the over-the-counter market.
